

BRIEF CURRICULUM VITAE

ANNITA PETROU

Annita Petrou has graduated in 2006 from Manchester Business School with flying colours and holds an MSc in Occupational Psychology. Prior to her MSc degree she received an M.Ed in Educational Psychology from Manchester University. Her first degree was a BA in Education with major in Psychology.

For the last six years, Annita is working at RCB Bank Ltd in the position of Human Resources Officer. Her career spans over 9 years in the field of Human Recourses Management. She held positions such as Training Manager and Human Recourses Coordinator at the Intercontinental Aphrodite Hills Resort Hotel, as Business Psychology Lecturer at the College of Tourism and Management and as a Human Recourses Consultant at the Intercollege Consultancy Unit (Limassol).

Annita is a Chartered Member of the British Psychological Society and holds the title of CPsychol. Simultaneously she is a member of the Health Professions Council as a Registered Practitioner Psychologist in the United Kingdom. Furthermore, Annita is a holder of the European Certificate of Psychology and is accredited for administrating and analysing psychometric tests (Level A and Level B Intermediate - British Psychological Society). Annita is also an approved trainer by HRDA and has been delivering trainings on soft skills since 2008. In addition, Annita is a member of the Cyprus Human Recourses Association and has active role in the Limassol and Paphos committee. Annita has delivered trainings for CIIM, ONEK and Harmonious Life, Lastly, she is an external trainer for the Cyprus Productivity Centre and conducts trainings related to the field of Human Recourses.