

BRIEF CURRICULUM VITAE

STYLIANOS N. CHRISTOFOROU

Stylianios received an LLB (Hons) in 1998 from the University of Hull. In 1999, he read law at the University of Nottingham from which he graduated with a degree of Master of Laws in International Commercial Law and thereafter, he became a Barrister at Law of Grays Inn. Following his academic achievement he, obtained two professional certifications: in 2004 he became a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and in 2015 Insolvency Practitioner.

Stylianios returned to Cyprus in 2001 where, after concluding his pupillage, he worked for some of the most renowned companies and organisations in the Island as a litigation lawyer and was quickly promoted to Head of the Litigation Department. In 2005, he established Stylianios N. Christoforou & Co LLC with offices in Nicosia, Cyprus and Bucharest, Romania. Stylianios is also the exclusive legal consultant of a great number of large companies, organisations and institutions in Cyprus.

As a lawyer, he possesses an outstanding legal expertise in a spectrum of practices including but not limited to employment and labour law, commercial law, company law, tax law, family law, property law and strategic business consulting. Furthermore, he has handled a number of local and international arbitrations as well as numerous high profile negotiations between employers and trade union representatives. Stylianios represents clients before all level of courts in Cyprus including the Supreme Court and all District Courts.

Since 2008, Stylianios has been a visiting lecturer of Labour Law and Industrial Relations at the Cyprus International Institute of Management (CIIM), and since 2014 at the Mediterranean Institute of Management teaching Company Law.