

International Conference “From Alienation to Inclusion”

Tuesday, December 10th | 16:30-21:30 | The Classic Hotel, Nicosia | Van Gogh Conference Room

Eliminating the barriers towards the social inclusion of migrants: A comprehensive educational toolkit reflecting on the social, psychological and linguistic aspects of integration

16:30-17:00	Registration
17:00-17:15	Opening speeches -Mr Angelos Parmatzias, Director of C.I.P. Citizens in Power -Mr Marios Filippou, Former President of Cyprus Youth Council
17:15-17:35	The educational toolkit at a first glance; a short presentation of the online platform developed under the EU-funded project “From Alienation to Inclusion” -Mrs Giota Mourettou, Head of the Department of Education, Development and Research, C.I.P Citizens in Power NGO, Cyprus
17:35-17:50	Communities of Closure; Developing intercultural competences for inclusive multi-cultural communities -Mrs Maria Savvides, Project Manager-Researcher, C.I.P Citizens in Power NGO, Cyprus
17:50-18:05	The pillar of self-esteem; employing dance therapy, contact improvisation and other forms of Art-therapy for empowering persons with traumatic experiences -Dr Georgia Solomonidou, Project Manager-Researcher, C.I.P Citizens in Power NGO, Cyprus
18:05-18:25	Eliminating the linguistic barrier through innovative language learning platforms -Speaker of Vilnius University, Lithuania -Speaker of Digijeunes, France
18:25-18:45	Coffee break
18:45-19:05	Educating youth workers dealing with vulnerable groups on the psychological aspects of integration on migrants and refugees -Speaker of IASIS NGO, Greece
19:05-19:20	The development of media campaigns with a social scope -Speaker of CEPS Projectes Socials, Spain
19:20-19:45	The development of films with a social scope; presenting the award-winning videos of the “FATI” Youth Film-making Competition -Speaker of Digijeunes, France

	-Mr Alfonso Garcia, 2nd prize winner of Competition in Cyprus
19:45- 20:10	Open discussion with the participants of the International Conference
20:10- 21:30	Dinner at Classic Hotel